

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR RELEASE ON OR AFTER JUNE 1, 2006

Press Contact: Jill Laufer @ 510.858.6252 or jill@thecrucible.org

The Crucible Presents The 2006 Fire Arts Festival

15 SECOND COPY:

Feel the Heat This Summer. The Crucible Presents its 6th Annual Fire Arts Festival, Wednesday through Saturday, July 12th to 15th. Experience new spectacles of fire and light sculpture and performance each night. The Fire Arts Festival is at 7th and Union Streets, near BART, in West Oakland. Info at www.thecrucible.org or call 510-444-0919.

-MORE-

FIRE ARTS FESTIVAL PSA (CON'T.)

30 SECOND COPY:

Let us light you you up this July. The Crucible Presents its 6th Annual Fire Arts Festival, Wednesday, July 12 through Saturday, July 15. Experience four illuminating nights and five fiery days of out-of-this world entertainment and workshop programming, with different spectacles of fire and light sculpture and performance each day. The Crucible's 200,000 square foot outdoor arena is located on 7th and Union Streets, near BART, in West Oakland, with easy access to the Bay Bridge. For more information or advanced tickets, visit www.thecrucible.org or call 510-444-0919.

45 SECOND COPY:

Let us light you you up this July. The Crucible Presents its 6th Annual Fire Arts Festival, Wednesday, July 12 through Saturday, July 15. Experience four illuminating nights and five fiery days of out-of-this world entertainment and arts classes, with different spectacles of fire and light sculpture and performance each night. The Crucible is a non-profit arts education center that fosters a collaboration of arts, industry and community, teaching and showcasing fire, metal, glass and light art in the East Bay for over five years. The Fire Arts Festival's 200,000 square foot outdoor arena is located on 7th and Union Streets, near BART, in West Oakland, with easy access to the Bay Bridge. For more information or advanced tickets, visit www.thecrucible.org or call 510-444-0919.

####