CRUCIBLE REVIVAL: KEEP THE FIRE BURNING HONORS DEPARTING FOUNDER

The Crucible Hosts a Revival Celebrating Its Founder's 12 Years of Creativity

OAKLAND, November 30, 2010 — The Crucible (www.thecrucible.org) has announced a January event, Crucible Revival, The Crucible's 12th Anniversary Benefit, to honor the work and vision of founder Michael Sturtz and to benefit the organization's educational programs. Crucible Revival is two nights only, on Friday and Saturday, January 14th and 15th, 2011, at The Crucible's West Oakland facility, with doors opening at 7 PM and with the seated performance starting at 8 PM.

As Crucible Founder and Creative Director Michael Sturtz will be stepping away from his official duties at The Crucible on January 15th, the industrial art school's actual 12th anniversary night. The Crucible is honoring and celebrating his 12 years of visionary leadership and creative genius by having him produce one more show that brings back all the show-stopping "greatest hits" from performances past. Sturtz has served as the Executive Director for The Crucible's first 11 years and as Creative Director for the past year. During this time he has created and produced ten Fire Arts Festivals and seven fire theater productions, such as Prokofiev's Romeo & Juliet and Stravinsky's Firebird, both set as Fire Ballets, among many other spectacular Crucible events.

Crucible Revival will feature reprisals of unforgettable moments from Crucible stage shows, stunning surprises and plenty of fire from a Who's Who of Bay Area favorites, including many Crucible friends and collaborators. Hosted by Master of Ceremonies Mark Growden, the revival promises a fast-paced, jaw-dropping lineup of music, dance and more. Mark Growden has been nominated twice for SF Weekly Music Awards and recently received the Art DEVO Award for Best Live Music Performance. West Coast Performance called Growden, "Theatrical, dark and sexy," and the Bay Guardian says Growden is "a sight and sound you don't want to miss."

"We have been incredibly fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with so many talented singers, musicians, dancers, aerialists and performers in our productions over the past 12 years. Crucible Revival will bring our favorites back together to form new collaborations and generate an excitement that only a Crucible retrospective could do," says Michael Sturtz, Crucible Founder and Creative Director.

Crucible Revival will also showcase on stage the industrial arts, with Crucible faculty and students performing amazing feats with glass, molten metal and more.
